

Historic, Archive Document

Do not assume content reflects current scientific knowledge, policies, or practices.

WHAT HAS BEEN DONE

State and Federal entomologists have studied pest. Freezing, drowning, poison, and trap lights have been tried and found ineffective—parasites helpful.

International corn-borer organization formed.

Corn-borer control laws passed by States helped check spread by transportation.

United States farmers visited damaged areas in Essex and Kent Counties, Ontario, in 1926, convinced.

Some farmers cleaned up yet failed through neglect of others.

CONGRESS APPROPRIATED $10,000,000
FOR 1927 CLEAN-UP

CLEAN UP BEFORE MAY 1

